

	Butler	Guattari	Althusser
method of resistance	discursive subversion	revolution	scientism subjection	'the insult'/interpellation	'the refrain'/autopoiesis	'the hail'/interpellation basis for subject	discourse	extra-discursive +discursive	mode of production motor	dialectical: master-slave	machines	institutions (ISAs) psychoanalytic categories	hysteric	obsessive relationship to analyst	analyst holds answer	analyst holds answer patient doesn't like or want patient's response	recognition	denial result	re-asserts master signifier / obscures the hailing mechanism	eliminates force of master signifier social order	'power' 'the law'	'integrated capitalism' 'the mass media order' example	marginalized groups	revolutionaries advantages	uses force of system against self	radical potential disadvantages	"no outside"	very risky benefit of synthesis	free the hysterical subject to create own signifiers by recognizing Other as a fake	recognizing the immense power of the big Other, social order, and the 'normopath'
